Democratic Ticket.

FOR CONGRESS,

A. O. STANLEY, OF HENDERSON.

President Roosevelt will make a visit to Panama next month.

Mrs. E. O. Davis, a bride of three weeks, formerly Miss Ollie Nichols, of Lexington, died in Los Angeles, Cal., Tuesday after a week's illness.

Judge H. H. Lurton, of Tennessee, is tipped as the most probable successor of Justice Brown, on the Supreme Court bench.

Wm. A. Smith, a Louisville policeman, scratched a small pimple off his nose, which caused it to turn into a carbuncle, followed by erysipelas and in nine days he was dead.

The New York Life Insurance Company has 100 policy-holders in this city, and at least 75 per cent. of them have voted to re-elect the "administration ticket" of directors.

A special committee, appointed by the Governor of Indiana, has investigated life insurance charges and has reported that they are so high that they are oppressive to the people who have to pay for policies.

The first joint session of the Kentucky State Grange and the State Farmers' Improvement Society met at Lexington Tuesday and for three days the two bodies will be in session.

Senator McCreary spoke at Morganfield Tuesday and Gov. Beckham at Benton. The Senator was met by a committee of Confederate Veterans and marched under the old battle-flag under which he fought.

The days for supplemental registration will be next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the last three days of October. If you were sick or absent from home October 2, you can register by making affidavit in the county clerk's office. Voters in all the small towns have this privilege also.

Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, Tuesday issued an order preventing further presentation of "The Clansman," deciding it calculated to produce disorder and endanger lives. The action was taken after hearing a delegation of representative negroes, and counsel for the show. The latter will seek an injunction to keep the Mayor from interfering with the production.

Noel Gaines has sued W. P. Walton, editor of the Frankfort Journal, for $25,000, for calling the Crusader's Haly-Lassing letter a forgery. Gaines insists that the letter is genuine, although it is said he admits that it was never mailed to Lassing, but fell into his hands. Lassing says he never secured the letter and Haly intimates that his signature was attached to it with a rubber stamp.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased part of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is cured by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Hood's

Sarsaparilla enjoys the distinction of being the greatest curative and preventive medicine the world has ever known. It is an all-round medicine, producing its unequalled effects by purifying, vitalizing and enriching the blood on which the health and strength of every organ, bone and tissue depend. Accept no substitute for Hood's, but insist on having Hood's, AND ONLY HOOD'S.

Latham, Alexander & Co's. annual publication, "Cotton Movement and Fluctuations," is out for 1906. Features are a valuable article written by Messrs. Elison & Co., of Liverpool, especially for this book; also "Southern Cotton Mills," "To Increase the Growth of Cotton Within the Empire," "Cotton production and Labor Supply," "Effect on Cotton Prices of Dealings in Futures," as well as the annual review of the cotton trade for the past season—besides the usual Tables of Receipts, Stocks, Exports, Consumption, Acreage, Total Visible Supply and Fluctuations for a series of years. There is much other original matter that cannot be found elsewhere in such a concise form. This publication is issued for gratuitous distribution among their customers, and is not for sale.

Eight special articles, each of actual importance to the American reading public, and nine short stories of the highest quality are contained in the November Everybody's. It is a number that should make a strong appeal to the widest possible variety of American readers. As for the fiction, a glance at the list of authors will indicate the unusual interest of the magazine in that field. There are stories by Alice Brown, Herman Whitaker, Eleanor Hallowell Abbott, Justus Miles Forman, Maximilian Foster, Hugh Pendexter, Sarah N. Cleghorn, and Elizabeth Flint Wade. Such a list proves the presence of romance of the best sort and delightful humor and drama of power.

Mail advices to France from Indochina tell of the unspeakable crimes of the King of Annam recently. After killing one of his wives he caused the body to be cooked and served up for dinner, forcing his entourage to eat it under pain of death. Some of the King's wives were bound and burned with burning oil and subjected to other cruelty, while naked women were thrown into the cages of wild beasts, where they were devoured before the eyes of the King. Finally the French authorities stepped in and made a prisoner of King Thanh-Thas, who has been adjudged insane by Dr. Humas, of the French Colonial staff.

Burton, the Kansas Senator who is in jail on a six months' sentence for grafting, is having an easy time. His jailer permits him to leave the jail for "walks," and his wife furnishes him his meals from her boarding house near the prison.

A jury was empaneled at Lexington Tuesday in the Ketterer Asylum case, and the taking of evidence was begun. Several witnesses on the stand gave sensational testimony.

Wealthy friends have come to the rescue of James W. Henning the New York broker, whose failure was announced, and will carry his indebtedness until he is able to resume business.

The President has officially set apart Nov. 29th as a day of national Thanksgiving.

MEETING TO BEGIN

At the Christian Church at Rich, Saturday.

Rev. Samuel F. Fowler, of Madisonville, Ky., will begin a protracted meeting at Rich, Saturday night, which will continue a week or more.

Devil's Island Torture

Is no worse than the terrible case of piles that afflicted me 10 years. Then I was advised to apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and less than a box permanently cured me, writes L. S. Napier, of Rugles, Ky. Heals all wounds, burns and sores like magic.

PAID 5 PER CENT.

Local Management of Fall Festival Affect Settlement.

The Committee appointed by the N. F. U. to hold the fall festival which came to a close last Saturday night, have settled with creditors, we are informed, at 20 cents on the dollar, and the affair is now a thing of the past, with the exception of Mr. Breton, who leaped the gap in an automobile. He stated that the committee owed him $200, after having made a payment of $50. He says he is going to stay here until he gets his money, and that he expects to bring suit to procure every cent of his claim.

ORDINANCE NO. 38

An ordinance to open a public way or street from a point on North Main street westwardly to Elm street.

Whereas, it is deemed desirable and to the best interest, as well as a great convenience to a large number of citizens of Hopkinsville, Ky., that a street be opened up connecting North Main street, Therefore,

Be it ordained by the Board of Council of the city of Hopkinsville, Kentucky:

That the following described street connecting North Main street with Elm street, passing over and through the lands of the Means heirs and Dalton Bros., and bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a point on the west edge of North Main street, about five feet south of a post in a fence enclosing a short street, thence N. 80½ W. 1570 feet to the Means and Dalton line, continuing same course N. 80½ W. 30 feet to a stake in Dalton Bros.' field, thence S. 143 feet to and connecting with the East line of Elm street, thence N. 80½ W. across Elm street, the width of which is 40 feet, thence N. 183 feet to another stake in Dalton Bros' field, thence S. 80½ E. 70 feet to Means' and Dalton's line, thence same course continued S. 80½ E. 1570 feet to the west edge of North Main, thence S. with west edge of said North Main street 40 feet to the beginning; Be, and the same is hereby ordered and declared opened and established as a public way of the City of Hopkinsville, for the use and benefit of the general public as a street, by the City of Hopkinsville.

That the Street Committee is authorized and empowered to negotiate with the owners of the land over and through which the said street shall pass, and purchase same, if possible, at such prices as may, in the judgment of said Committee, be reasonable and just, and report their action in the matter to the next regular meeting of this Board of Council.

And in the event or failure of said Street Committee to negotiate the purchase of said right of way as aforesaid, then the City Attorney is hereby authorized and instructed to institute condemnation proceedings in the name of the City of Hopkinsville vs. the owners of the land over and through which said street shall pass, in the County Court of Christian County, Ky., and have said lands constituting said right of way of said street condemned for street purposes as aforesaid.

Adopted Oct. 19th, 1906.

Herbert P. McMath, Clerk, of the Board of Council of the
City of Hopkinsville, Ky.

Approved Oct. 24th, 1906.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Mayor
City of Hopkinsville, Ky.

J. T. WALL & CO.

The Old Reliable Jewelry House

of Hopkinsville is, after all, the best place to get anything in the Jewelry line. There's a record behind us, a record of over thirty years; a clean record of satisfied customers, a record of honest dealing, for honest quality, honest prices. It's a record any Jeweler might feel proud of. And when we sell an article we have in mind that we have a record to maintain, and no slipshod methods, no careless workmanship, no lack of quality, is ever allowed to mar the record of the past. But to improve, if possible, this record, is ever our aim, and goods are sold for as low a price as it is possible to sell reliable goods.

It will pay you in the end to deal with the Old Reliable Jeweler.
